

PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS BIOGRAPHY AND QUALIFICATIONS

VINCENT M. WOLANIN (Pronunciation Key WHOA- Lan- in)

Born 1947, (Philadelphia, PA), married (ILLONA) (2) children (VICTORIA and WHITNEY), BS 1969 Philadelphia University, 1969-71 Union College Graduate school. Elected 2004 Father Judge HS High School Hall of Fame Philadelphia, Pa.. 2010 Awarded- Inducted with Lifetime Innovation Award by Philadelphia University. 2011 Elected to Philadelphia University Athletic Hall of Fame, Philadelphia, Pa. Full Time Resident of Sanibel Island, Florida.

Professional Accomplishments: Chairman-CEO, Investor, Owner, Founder, Operator of companies involved in Aviation, Real Estate, Construction and Development, Entertainment, et al. Licensed real estate broker, "CPB" - Certified Commercial Property Builder by National Builders Association. Certified Class "A" General Contractor license holder. Multi-sport

NCAA Collegiate athlete inducted into several Halls of Fame. Ranked Tournament racquetball player with professional endorsements contracts for 8 years. Producer, Grammy voting member, songwriter, creative work on numerous Billboard hit songs (including 6 consecutive Billboard Hits with Recording Artist Whitney Wolanin). Winner of numerous building awards for various real estate developments in multiple states. Philanthropist, creator- co-founder of the Rockin' Christmas™ Fund which raises significant funds to help students who suffered a family tragedy attend college.

Vincent M. Wolanin Innovation Quote:

“In my career the biggest innovation facilitator continues to be that the word NO was never an answer I could accept; as hearing NO always motivated me to the highest determination levels to get the YES, consequently it spurred endless creativity which resulted in countless business, construction, aviation, and musical INNOVATIONS”

